

Recent Releases

3+

by Sam Hearn

3+

by Katie Harnett

4+

by Paula White

3+

by Przemyslaw Wechterowicz & Emilia Dziubak

Bookworm Buzz

Welcome to the latest Bookworm Buzz. Never Brush A Bear will have you and your kids in fits of giggles as you tickle your way through this brilliant book.

Archie Snufflekins is a delight of a book for all cat and community lovers. On the surface a simple text but with so much meaning in the illustrations.

A nostalgic gem of a book, breathtakingly illustrated in a gentle limited palette. The Baker by the Sea will make your heart swell.

Originally published in Polish, When Little Owl Met Little Rabbit is earthy, warm and sweet in every way. A lovely story to share with a friend you don't get to see often or to introduce a nocturnal topic.

Brilliant Non-Fiction

A book you will want to keep reading and reading! Bursting with fascinating facts about sisters throughout history and around the world. Great diverse representation and well thought out to include sections to help place sisters in chronology.

8+

by Katie Nelson & Olivia Meikle

Where's Wally for fact lovers. Spot different images with captions to learn facts about Roman Times. Who doesn't love a cool magnifying glass too!

by David Long & Daniel Spacek

6+

Lovely beginners non-fiction text. Uses numbered elements to help guide early readers around the text. Fun, engaging illustrations.

by Chris Naunton & Guilherme Karsten

6+

www.busybusylearning.com

'Reading is an exercise in empathy; an exercise in walking in someone else's shoes for a while.' – Malorie Blackman

Book Match

A unique and stunning book from a master storyteller with exquisite, intricate illustrations based on traditional Mughal miniature painting with a contemporary twist

by Soni Zuberi Shah & Fatima Zahra Hassan

A wonderful celebration of food and its origins from around the world. Great balance of images and texts. Looks at the future of food and tough questions around food.

by Sandra Lawrence & Violeta Noy

Indie Publishers

Indie publishers are incredible - to make a book come into print is like alchemy! Here's a few...

A lyrical story that feels like it could belong in ancient times.

The magic of community to nurture a forest. Stunning.

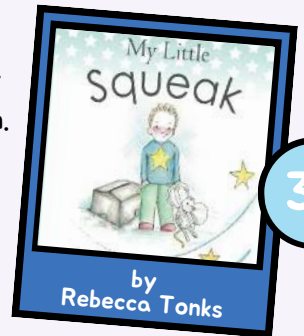

by Triona Harris & Sarah Miles

One of a series of ABC books. Bursting with morals and fantastic facts about amazing animals and their habitats.

by Reece May & Alexandra Ball

A really special book about a child with selective mutism. Advocating for time and space to be able to speak when ready.

by Rebecca Tonks

A lovely book about being unique. Main character Logan goes through lots of aspects of his day, what he enjoys, what he finds tricky and explains how we're different but similar.

YA Sensational

A sensational lyrical prose YA fiction novel that you will not be able to put down. Powerfully written as a set of poems by the protagonist Azadeh as her two juxtaposed worlds of home and school collide when her mum's mental health spirals dangerously out of control. Full of hope, friendship and creativity it's a 2022 must read.

by Jion Sheibani

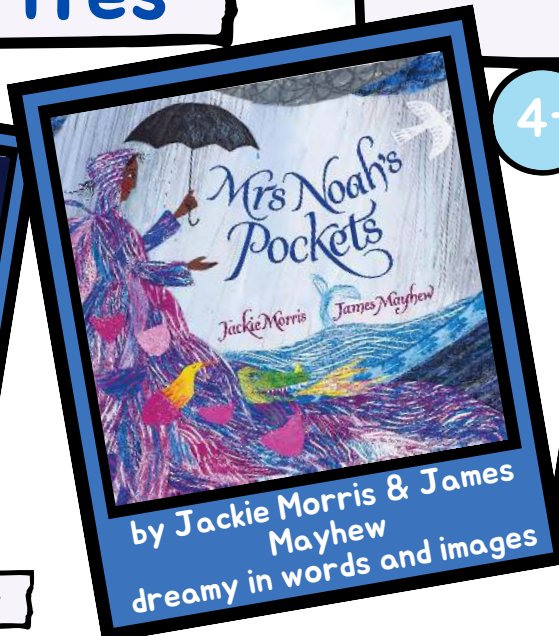

by Nita Sandhu & Anastasia Pronina

Favourites

by Faridah Àbíké-Íyímídé
dark, gripping and will leave a mark on your soul

by Jackie Morris & James Mayhew
dreamy in words and images

by Jeannie Baker
bilingual wonder comparing two different cultures

YA

ages are guides only